

Is your unit still stuck in a tree somewhere on your map playing dumb by himself and does your peasant certainly ignore all senses of 3 dimension by climbing up & down a hill as constructing a structure? Get this patch ASAP and teach your todding babies how to find thier path at last. More and more major bugs have been fixed and packed in this "1.07a patch" along with the dramatic improvement in Computer AIs as we all begged for.

- Pathfinding AI improved
- Fixed the bug in the first Dark Legion mission where the camera followed the Hero
- Computer AI improved
- Fixed the bug in which you could summon multiple Heroes
- Fixed the bug in which you could attack a Tower hidden by the fog of war
- Fixed the bug in which a Mage upgrade actually decreased its mana capacity
- Changed Richter's hotkey(which coincided with Rally Point hotkey)
- Prohibited papering words in chat
