Barrack v1.0.0

by Ambrosia Software

Balance sharp thinking and quick reflexes in this mind-boggling game! Use your shooters to fill the playing field and isolate bouncing balls. Watch out! If a ball breaks your shooter's particle beam before the beam reaches the other side of the playing field, your shooter explodes. Fill 80 percent of the screen to get to the next level.

Connect4 v1.0

by Miles Michelson

You'll connect with this challenging game. Be the first to get four chips in a row by dropping them on a playing board. Choose from five board sizes and three difficulty levels. Expand the possibilities by attempting to get three, five or six chips in a row instead of the classic four. Play against the computer or challenge a friend — even watch the computer play itself.

DrawPoker v1.0

by Gregg Roe

Place your bets! Take a gamble with this five-card draw poker game. If you run out of money, your bankroll goes back to $100.

Egyptian Solitaire v1.0.2

by InterStellar Software

Play classic solitaire with an Egyptian flair. Twenty-eight cards are dealt face up and overlapping in the shape of a pyramid. The rest are turned over one at a time. Take cards off the pyramid when they are one higher or one lower in value of the cards in the deck. Continue until you run out of cards or clear the pyramid.

Enigma v1.0

by FreeVerse Software

This MasterMind-style game has an attitude. Crack a color code and open the Enigma Briefcase to advance through the levels. To make things harder — and more fun — your enemies taunt you when you make mistakes.

InterStellar

MacCribbage v1.01

by InterStellar Software

Dare your Mac to a game of cribbage. Complete help is available for beginners — the computer automatically pegs and scores for you. A more difficult level challenges advanced players — it steals any points you forget to peg. Choose from four different playing boards.

MineSweeper v2.3

by Shane Smith

You'll have a blast as you try to find all the mines on the minefield. Click on a square and a number appears telling you how many bombs surround it. Mark all the bomb squares with a flag. Watch out! If you click on a square with a bomb in it, you lose. Choose from several grid sizes and number of bombs on each grid.

Space Gypsy v1.0.1

by The Syzygy Cult

Destroy invading aliens in this Space Invaders-style game. Fight past wave after wave of aliens to sell your merchandise and make a profit. Grab powerups to get additional weapons.

The Sultan's Palace v1.0

by Louise Hope

Explore the riches of the Sultan's palace in this action-packed adventure! When your friend, Jake, doesn't meet you in the market, you decide to look around. Locate your friend while exploring the elaborate temple and surrounding city.

Uncle Zebulon's Will

by Magnus Olsson

Discover the secrets of Uncle Zebulon's house in this exciting text-based adventure. Zebulon passed away. His will states you are allowed to take one item from his house. When you get to his house, you find mysteries, including the magic mirror that leads to another world.
