Set sample offset
Where [9][x][y] means "play the sample from offset x*4096 + y*256". The offset is measured in words. If no sample is given, yet one is still playing on this channel, it should be retriggered to the new offset using the current volume.