

ABC Television "MAY '95 SWEEPS PHOTOGRAPHY" CD-ROM DISC: Vol. II, No. 3

Welcome to the "MAY '95 SWEEPS PHOTOGRAPHY" issue of the ABC Photography CD-ROM.

We are please to present our seventh CD-ROM disc which is now Macintosh (TM) and Windows(TM) compatible. We have appreciated your comments and suggestions.

The "ABC PhotoGrid" software gives a faster preview grid. It will also allows you to print a proof of a single image with caption or groups of five smaller images with caption on one page.

ABC Photography now delivers its images to interested publications via:

¥ The Associated Press' PhotoExpress service, a subsidiary of PhotoStream(TM), the AP's main picture distribution system.

¥ PressLink, the independent, on-demand, image, graphics and text communications network.

¥ Point-to-point image transmission for last-minute emergency requests. Our DIT-to-DIT number is (212) 456-3099. Please call for a set-up.

Electronic imaging enables ABC to greatly improve the technical quality, timeliness and variety of its pictures. The end user benefits by saving the cost of scanning and the tighter integration of images to the production process.

Your comments about our images and delivery methods are always welcome. Please contact:
