*

Cebit'93
added to the party-search.

* Added comments to some of the parties.
(Also from the mighty AmigaDemoList)

* Didn't spread this version

v2.2 (Released 13/1 - 1995)

* Realized I had fucked up with the Slideshow
searchfunction in AmigaGuide.
It is now corrected.

* Got an e-mail address. Use it NOW!

* Board adverts updated.

* Subject memberlist updated.

* This historylist added.

v2.3 (Released 26/2 - 1995)

* Thanks to Richard Ehlers (Encore) for his contributions to the list.

* Thanks to Mirko Pauli for his great contributions to this list!

* Thanks to Tony Hasselbacher for all his contributions to this collection.

* Many golden oldies gathered via the marvellous FTP function! Internet is the future, that's a fact!

* Added
Summit'91
to the party-search.

* Even more party-results corrected.

v2.4 (Released 23/4 - 1995)

* Did some work to make the design better. Although it wouldn't be too bad having some fresh ascii in this list. If you are a decent ascii-artist feel free to draw some "Demos Of The World", "Menu", "Music", "DiskMag"
"AGA", "Harddrive" etc.

* Rewrote the Information page.

* Thanks to Jens Georg (Prophet/Wizzcat) for his contributions to the list.

* Productions from Primavera'95
added to the list.

- * Added more details on the Intros and Pictures from different parties.
 - * Included a nice commercial-picture with tracing by Jonas Rudholm (Boozer)
 - * Productions from Virtual Conspiracy'95
 added to the list.
 - * Removed the Subject-info page.
 - * Productions from Gathering'95
 added to the list.

v2.5 (Released 31/5 - 1995)

- * Thanks to Clone/Access for his nice ascii-graphics.
 Anarchy EasterParty 1992 (UK)
 added to the partysearch.
 Society SummerConference 1992
 added to the partysearch.
 Symposium 1995
 added to the partysearch.
 - * Worked REALLY hard to get better information about pictures and intros from different parties.
 EasternConference 1995 (Poland)
 added to the partysearch.
 - * E-mail addy removed. I've stopped working and therefor lost my e-mail address. I will surely get a new one sometime in the future.
 - * The collection is now around 1000 disks!
 - * Thanks to Maik Solf, Germany, for his picture-contributions to the list.

v2.6 (Released 26/8 - 1995)

- * Removed some picture-categories which had lack of pictures (eg. three pictures from TheParty #1 and three from Assembly'94.)
 - * Added a PERSONAL Alltime Top30 Demos list.
 - * Thanks to Willi Hillenbrand, Berlin, Germany, for his contributions to the list.
 - * THANKS to Randy/NEO/(SUBJECT!) for his nice ascii graphics!

* Thanks to Juha Kallioniemi, Helsinki, Finland, for his contributions and his corrections to the list.

Icing95 party
added to the partysearch.

*
Diskmags
are now sorted in order of the MAGAZINE name.

* Thanks to Anders Engström, Piteå, Sweden, for bringing me a bunch of disks with nostalgic demostuff.

* Sorted all productions in the party-links after place in the demo-compo.

Gelloween'94
added to the partysearch.

* The Wanted list is growing TOO fast. Please help me to make it smaller.

South Sealand'95
added to the partysearch. If there have been previous parties with the same name, please send me the results.

*
Somewhere In Holland'95 added to the partysearch. I also want to have the results from the SIH94! Could someone please send those numbers to me?

* Thanks to William Nilsson (Sincenatic/Tension) for his contributions to the list and for sending me the complete results from The Party IV.

Assembly'95
added to the partysearch.

*
GASP'95
added to the partysearch.

v2.7 (Released 23/10-1995)

* Thanks to Pär Lindahl (L-vis/Royal) for his contributions to the list.

Intel Outside'95
added to the party-search.

* Included a font named DOTW.font (As a matter of fact it is system.font).
This font will help getting the guide-file a little better looking, but don't expect too much.

- * !NOTE! A person who called himself "Slurry/Intense" (I think) contacted me and I was going to write back but I seem to have lost your address! If you read this, please reply with your address!

Party Remedy'95
added to the party-search.

- * Remade the Demos Of The World Top-30 to a Top-50 list. God, I wish I had a little brother who could do this for me! :-)

v2.8 (Released 12/2-1996)

*

Compusphere 5
added to the partysearch function.

- * Thanks to Grandemange Cedric (Zone/Psykotrope/NGC) for his contributions to the list.
- * Thanks to Jonas Rudholm for collecting oldies through Aminet for me.
- * Thanks to Wade/Eltech (England) for his contributions to the list.

Scenest'95
added to the partysearch function.

*

The Party 5
added to the partysearch function.

*

South Sealand 1994
added to the partysearch function.

- * Added a credits part for easy overview of the involved in this list.

SUPPORT BBS OPENED, HEAVEN FOR EVERYONE INTERESTED IN THE ↔ DEMOSCENE!

v2.9 (Released 30/4-1996)

- * Thanks to Anton Halldin (Ant/3LE) for his contributions.

Convention'96
added to the partysearch function.

- * Gathering'96 added to the partysearch function.

Symposium'96

added to the partysearch function.

- * Now included as a separate part is the results of all included parties. REMEMBER that I've only included productions which I actually HAVE in this list. If there is a hole in a democompo it doesn't mean that there actually isn't supposed to be any demo at that spot. This is also the reason why I know include the complete results.

v3.0 (Released 15/9-1996)

- * Thanks to Stefan Schroeder (Spiv/Infect) for his contributions.
- * Support BBS was closed down due to boredom in today's BBS scene. The main reason is all the PC losers who got their first computer 1994 and now think that they rule the world.
- * Demos Of The World is now on the WWW! For scenefun and the latest updates on this listing go to: www.algonet.se/~jorgen_p/
- * NEW e-mail address: jorgen_p@algonet.se

 - Icing'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

 - Saturne Party'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

 - South Sealand'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

- *
 - Party Remedy'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

- *
 - Polish Summer Party'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

 - Assembly'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

- * Removed the Demos Of The World demopack to get the guidefile smaller.

- * Made a new section:
 - 40kb & 64kb Intros
 - . These are onlyintros which competed at any party.

 - Intel Outside'96
 - added to the partysearch function.

- * Added the section

Video Project
, make sure you check it out.

* This MAY be the last official release. If you have interest in getting updates, use the section!

Contact Me

1.8 DEMOS OF THE WORLD - THE VIDEO!

Demos Of The World - The Video! v1.0 (1996-09-11)

- * Videoshow with the greatest and most nostalgic Amiga demos.
- * Animations and pictures created on the Amiga in between the demos.
- * Everything put together in a professional way and of course edited with a real videoediting board.
- * I'll try to contact ALL authors of the demos chosen for the video. If you are an author of any mentioned demo in the preliminary contents, feel free to contact me
 and give me your opinion.
- * !IMPORTANT! If you want to contribute, have suggestions, questions don't hesitate to raise your voice! I'd be happy to get some high-quality animations made on the Amiga.

 7th.

The Amiga competitions were hosted by Accession, The Movement, and Virtual Dreams.

It was a huge amount of visitors. No secured numbers were given but the organizers said it was around 2500 visitors. PC dominated this party but the Amiga still held on as the number one democomputer.

1.37 THE PARTY (1991)

"Quartex Silents Anarchy, The Party 1991"

The Party 1991 was held between December 27th and 29th, 1991 in Aars, Denmark. At that time the C64 was still well represented at parties, and the demo competitions for the C64 and Amiga were almost the same size. 1250 people visited the party, which made it quite a big party. It has since only been exceeded by The Party II.

Not much information was written down about the Party in 1991, only the 2 demos with the highest ranking. Odyssey was a long demo, a kind of space quest, and Hard Wired placed Silents on top of the charts for years!

1.38 THE PARTY 2 (1992)

"Crystal Silents Anarchy, The Party 1992, Part II, The Final"

The Party II, a demo coders' gathering was held between December 27th and 29th, 1992 in Aars, Denmark.

2500 scene people from the whole world visited the party, which confirmed its status as an international party, and the biggest one.

Three types of demos were submitted: demo and intro competitions, and other releases. The intros are smaller than 40KBytes. The releases didn't participate any competitions, and consist mostly of disk-mags and compilation disks.

A general rule for productions for the competitions was that they should run on an A500 with 1MB of memory, either 1MB chip ram, or with 0.5MB chip ram and 0.5MB fast ram.

The party also hosted music and graphics competition and competitions for the C64 and IBM-compatibles.

·» VIRTUAL CONSPIRACY -95 «·

This party held in Nykoping, Sweden between the 31/3 and 2/4 wasn't any big success. Only 150 visitors and no good competitions. The reason might have been that the Gathering'95 in Norway is only half a month away. At the party a CD with Amiga-music called "Best Of The Amiga Scene" was released. It is a great celebration to the Amiga, with 18 classic Amiga tracks. If you want to have your own copy of this CD, get in touch with Orgasmatron/X-Trade or Snuskis/DCS Graphics.

1.53 ASSEMBLY'95

The third issue of the Assembly demoparty were held in Helsinki, ← between the 10th and 13th of August. The place where the party was held were probably one of the best ever hosting a demoparty. 4500m$^2$ with room for 1800 computers. As the complex also hosted a normal exhibition it is pretty difficult to decide the exact amount of visitors. Organizers talked about around 4000 visitors. The total priceamount were around $50000. The winners in the demo-compo on both PC and AMIGA got $4500 each. All demos were of high quality but very much all the same. Jaco/VD won the animation competition with an incredible animation rendered on an A1200/030 machine. This animation have been released but I don't know if that's the complete compo-version. Release version is a 10,5MB sized MPEG encoded animation.
Finland

Winning PC demo "Stars: Wonders OF The World" from Noon was a awesome piece of demo. Too bad you have to own a pretty fast PC to have a look at it. PC group Noon consists of ex. Amiga sceners like Ra/Sanity.

1.55 Intel Outside Party 1995

Some words about Intel Outside Party II organised by MYSTiC and UNION, ←
 29-30.08.1995 in Warsaw, Poland.
 Sorry for my poor english, but I hope you'll understand it.

Party was opened at 8:30 am. All people was registered in Amiga computer. Officially arrived about 950 people (sold tickets), but on party was above 1050 people !!!!!!!! (press, TV, girls (for free), invitated persons, etc.)

This was a biggest party ever in Poland ! I recorded a video-tape on the party, so if you wanna see how looks Polish parties (with alchochol, naked girls, techno-groups live-concert, many, many fun-compies) than you have to contact with me & I will send you a VHS copy tape (cost 15 USD + P&P):

1.56 PARTY REMEDY'95 - SWEDEN

Party Remedy 1995 was held in Solna a suburb to Stockholm between ↔ the 7-9

of October. Arranging groups were DCS, Limited Edition and Rebels PC. The organizing team had hopes of around 800 visitors but only 300 showed up. Competitions were really good compared to the amount of persons who actually showed up. 40 modules entered the 4 channel compo and the Amiga democompetition was quite ok.

With an excellent piece of art, Razor 1911 brought some of the lost honour back to the swedish demoscene. Excellent code, excellent music and decent graphics is what this demo has to offer. Really nice to see Mantronix back Recommended for this demo is a 68030/25 and I really understand that because this demo is dead slow on my 020/14 (With fastram). As a matter of fact i don't have much positive to say about the meaning in making these kinds of graphic-objects on the Amigal200. Although this demo is pretty good and you can atleast imagine how it would look on a fast Amiga. In the info-file it states that the demo could possibly work on an Amiga without fastmem. But believe me, you don't want to see it on a clean 1200.

Juliet&Case succeeded in becoming number five in two Assembly compos in a row (94-95). I liked their demo for Assembly'94 (CCCP) and I think that this one is really nice aswell. One thing that annoys me though is the very dark color-choices. Maybe that has something to do with the "message" the demo wants to tell!?

Another trackmo which got released in a time where I though trackmos did not exist in the top of the demoscene. This demo is a great exception though. The winner of the democompetition at GASP'95 is a demo with very good coding and some really evolutionary vector-parts. Minus for not supporting extra-drive.

Hard to judge this demo as it is done with the special melon-style. You don't have to be a genius to realize that this demo doesn't support any amazing coding though. Provocation is the melon-style. Neat and funny!

All top-3 demos from the Assembly'95 looked the same. And they also had demands of fast CPU's to really enjoy the demo. Complex objects and not much of a real demo in my opinion. Leave this kind of demos to the PC!

Not much to say really. Don't know if the credits are correct, just stole them from the Miracles demo. I have a strange feeling that it is at least ALMOST them same persons who have made this demo. Faster graphic-objects than in the Miracles demo though.

First version released at the Assembly'94, but as far as I can remember it wasn't shown in its full length. Maybe they didn't manage to get it all together in time. Anyway, this demo is really awesome with no doubt the most smashing first-part EVER. The soundeffects by Zoltar is totally awesome. All in all I think that this shows that those guys, who also gave us "Odyssey" a couple of years earlier, are among the alltime BEST demo-makers.

The biggest (8.6MB on harddrive) demo ever made for the A1200!? This is a awesome demo from a bunch of hungarians. Who would have thought that the hungarian Amiga-scene would reach such standard a couple of years ago. My favoritepart is a kind of Super Stardust warplevel look-a-like. Polka Brothers continued their extravaganza with this excellent piece of art. This demo could well have been my number one but it has got some minor "bugs". The winner at THE PARTY4 is what you can call a perfectly designed demo. I haven't noticed any bugs at all and the demo runs on very naturally. Too bad that the endscroller contains somekind of personal aggressions towards Lord Helmet/Spaceballs. I don't know the background but there must have been another way "solving" the problem. This can't take away the pride of this marvellous demonstration though.

 Hardware requirements.....68020+ (NO AGA)
 Filetype.....Trackdemo

This demo is probably the most perfectly put-together demo ever. To fit everything the show has to offer onto 1 disk is somekind of a miracle. Also, the main-theme by Jester is the best demotune I've ever heard. A really speedy song which really makes the demo better. The first version of this demo was released at THE PARTY4. Due to some harddrive crashes they had problems with making the demo complete. I guess that this final version would have done better in the democompetition at TheParty4. But why don't they use AGA graphics when the demo requires a 68020 anyway?

Another amazing demonstration from the finnish group Virtual Dreams. This time they really try to aim high by putting in hundreds of different routines. Unfortunately it ends up with an average design. A very annoying fact is that the first music stops abruptly. This could of course have been forced by the demo-deadline at TheParty4. Overall it is still an impressing demo with really good coding. (But, where are the credits??)

Another masterpiece released at the Assembly'94. This one is a really huge demo which really uses the strength of your machine. It features some nice routines like a doom-engine, voxel-landscape and a city-flyaround. It is stated that there is a A4000 version released but I can't really confirm that myself. Annoying is that the music ends abruptly a couple of times.

A follow-up to the popular State Of Art - demo. I think that this is the most ENTERTAINING demo ever made. Many other coders didn't like this demo as they found it too easy to code. Still, there haven't been any similiar demos relased! (Or at least none of them have been even close to this one) One of few demos which you can show for people not usually interested in the world of computers. This also became the last demo from Lone Starr.

The first techno-dance demo from LoneStarr/SpaceBalls. It was a big sensation when it was released at TheParty2 in 1992. I still think that this is a really entertaining demo. Something to bring to a real party maybe! Notice that there is atleast two versions of this demo around. Although I can't get any of the two versions to run on my A1200/4MB fast machine. Anyone who has got an AGA fixed version?

No question about it: This IS the most CLASSIC and the most FAMOUS demo of all time. Of course it doesn't normally go into a Top-50 nowadays, but it is just too nostalgic to be left out. I remember how astonished I was when I watched this demo for the very first time. I guess that PHENOMENA is yet today the group that most people wants to see a "comeback" from. There have been a lot of rumours that they really will do a comeback but I doubt it myself. Whatever happens, PHENOMENA will always be among the true legends of the Amiga-scene and all scenes in general!
