Chapter 1

BNS patterns 3

1.1 Hello, follow me !

BNS Patterns 3

Oye , oye brave people !

Welcome in our third patterns packs. It contains some beautiful images to put in the back of your BNS MagicWorkbench's. We haven't drawn any of these images, We just resized and dithered them so they match our palette (in 32 colors now).

As usual click on the little buttons to learn more than that.

1.2 B'neh!!!

Legal Notes

This pack is feedbackware, t' means that if you like/hate our work you gotta send us some kind of answer (mail, email, message in bottle, carrier pigeon... - however homemade bombs & other deathtraps are no more accepted), this archive should be distributed for free , if you got it for more than $5 you've been fooled.

If once you installed our work on your system, your best friend Kenny decides to go and play marbles right in the middle of the highway and get smashed by a horde of bikers on their harveys-dalidsons, a royal camping car & a 35-Tons-Truck and finally dies in horribles circumstances, or even worse - our product doesn't work, you damage some material - we are not responsible.

DReAM is not allowed... ! ...pff who cares those 'alternative' lamers won't read it ! DReAM is allowed to put this archive on their magazine provided SBN, NED, Gino, and I get 5000 U.S.Dollars each from the generous owners of the magazine (poss press). All other magazines are allowed to put it freely provided SBN, NED, GINO and I get a free copy of the issue, one for each.

1.3 Introduction

Blah, blah, blah, 32 colors patterns, blah 16 too, blah, blah, beautiful ! I'd even say... magnificent !

NOTE : The images were in ILBM uncompressed (for speed reasons) but the archive was 6MB so SBN advised me to convert the patterns to PNG (NED will have some more chances to get the archive with his 'rotten' line).

1.4 Installation

Are you kiddin' ?

For the 32 colors you'll learn more in the BNSMWBicons8.lha archive available in Aminet, pix/mwb. I have included there my fullpalette preferences (fullpalette V1.9 is on AMINET)

Sorry Mr Magnus.
