

Steve Ballmer Presents Small Business Server 2000

Watch this short, video presentation in which Microsoft CEO Steve Ballmer captures the excitement and commitment behind the release of Small Business Server 2000. Learn how Small Business Server 2000, Microsoft's networking solution for small businesses, was designed with feedback from technology providers to better serve small business customers through improved setup and support.

To view the recorded Microsoft Windows Media™ Player presentation, use the download on the right-hand side of the page. If you don't currently have Windows Media Player* installed, you can download and install it from the Microsoft Windows Media site.