In KidVid Cinema, kids watched as a boy named Isaac had to turn to Jesus for direction. Isaac wandered away from his mom in a store and got lost. He was pretty scared but remembered to stop and pray. Isaac found someone who worked at the store who could help him find his mom. Whew!

Think of a specific way your family needs direction. Then spend time silently listening to God. Share what direction, words, or images God brings to your mind in those moments.

Today kids saw a video about a boy named Noa. Like a lot of kids, Noa and his sister weren't exactly getting along. Uh-oh! But when Noa's dad gave him a special Bible study book, it helped him learn how to treat his sister with Jesus' kindness and love.

Talk with your child about what it means to show Jesus' love to others. Pray for Jesus to help you love people who might be hard to love.
