dit edits the projects.

Default lets you set the default project for the current document.

Categories lists the projects currently available.   Selecting a project from the list effects all selected time entries.