Public Data Networks: Service Recommendations and Price Quotes
Services listed in alphabetical order

	AT&T Accunet
New York (headquarters)	X.25 Accunet Packet Service ($1,200/month), plus $1,200 total usage charge for all four branches (assuming peak usage times)
San Francisco (regional office)	X.25 Accunet Packet Service ($700/month)
Seattle (branch office)	As above
Dallas (branch office)	As above

IBM Information Network IBM offers an X.25 ser-vice but would not supply furt

Infonet Infonet Services Corp. recommended X.25 Network Service, at a total pri
This price assumes that the client company is using its own modems and DSUs (d

Mark*Net General Electric Corp. recommended its X.25 bidirectional virtual circ

SprintNet Data Network U.S. Sprint recommended LAN Reach X.25, with a total

CompuServe Inc.
CompuServe Network Services	BT North America Inc. Tymnet Global Network
Fixed-LAN service ($2,000/month) or Fixed-X.25 service ($1,750/month)	Tymnet Dedicated X.25 Interface at 56 Kbps ($2,800/month)
Fixed-LAN service ($900/month) or Fixed-X.25 service ($700/month)	Tymnet XLink Express at 9.6 Kbps ($850/month)
As above	TymDial X.25 ($500/month)
As above	Tymnet X.25 OutDial Service ($285.30/month)

ther information for our scenario.

ce of $3,525 per month, but did not supply a cost breakdown (cost per branch).
ata service units) and is accessing the network via a local telephone company.

uit service but did not specify the price.

l price of $4,000 to $4,700 a month, depending on whether X.25 or asynchronous dial-up a access is used. The company did not supply a cost breakdown.