Shareware Registration Information

Contour81 is a copyrighted "shareware" product. You may obtain this software package from a number of locations, including on-line services, bulletin board systems, and user groups. If, after a reasonable period of time, you find that Contour81 is worth money to you, then please complete the registration form on the following page and send it to the above address along with the appropriate payment. See the form for the exact benefits of each level of registration. The standard shareware "rules" apply to this product, specifically:

- 1 - The Contour81 application must be distributed with the files Contour81 Doc and Contour81 Reg Doc (this file), either in compressed or uncompressed form.
- 2 - Users groups, bulletin boards, etc. may only charge a reasonable duplication fee for distribution of this software.

Thank you for using this program and supporting shareware.
