OTI111 Capture Help - Contents

Introduction

Use the mouse to click at the area you'd like to learn more about!

Exit

?

Spitfire
Status

Status

VideoWindow

Video Window

Introduction

The OAK Technology Video Capture Utility is a Windows Application which demonstrates the video display and capture ability of the Spitfire OTI-64111

This manual is a reference guide to OAKCAPV, providing information about each function in the program.

Capture Format

Display a dialog box used to select the capture video format.

Video Source Control

Display a dialog box used to control the video input source and standard. The available sources are TV,AV, and S-Video. The standards are NTSC,PAL and SECAM. Choose automatic as standard to auto detect the input video standard.

Display Control

Display a dialog box used to control the video output. This dialog contains controls that affect the hue, contrast, brightness, saturation, vertical and horizontal filters.

Next Channel

To next channel

Previous Channel

To previous channel

Compress AVI File

Compress   an avi file

Capture Configuration

Configure the capture parameters

Capture Video

Capture video to the avi file.

Capture Multiple Frames

Capture multiple frames   to the avi file.

Capture Bitmap

Capture video   to the bitmap file.

TV Channel

Mute State

Click here to toggle mute state

🔴	Mute On
🟢	Mute Off

Tuner Setup

Tuner setup dialog. Let you adjust tuner functions such as media type, finetuning

Volume Setup

Video source and standard
Click here to change the video source and standard

Exit

Media Type

Click here to change the media type

	Antenna
	Cable

Play AVI Files

Toggle Video Window between topmost and normal

Expand or Shrink Control Panel

About Spitfre Capture Utility

Status and Error Message

Help

Video Window

Video Window, Click right mouse button to bring up control window and left button to activate video window.