

---

WORKING WITH PATHS

Paths are line and curve segments connected by square endpoints called nodes. A path that completely encloses an area is closed; a path with start and end nodes that are not connected is open.

Paths exist on a layer above your image and are