

Aloha,

On the Ultimate Kauai Screensaver there are two bonus Quicktime movie previews. Each one is a video directed and produced by Kauai's independent filmmaker Koa Kahili.

Lost at Last is a science fiction romantic adventure about a modern woman's spiritual awakening. Filmed on Kauai Lost at Last is truly a local production, made possible by many kind-hearted volunteers, and generous friends. The movie not only showcases Kauai's natural beauty, it draws upon Hawaiian mythology and culture.

The Kalalau Challenge is a sporting event that defines the word extreme. Take a bunch of local North Shore athletes and present them with a challenge, the Kalalau Challenge, and see what happens. Most competitors do it just to finish, to say they survived swimming the treacherous Na Pali coast. It is definitely a spiritual journey and the most picturesque sporting event in the world.
